ANCESTRY.

Some Famous Personages to Whom It

Meant Nothing.

The making famous of the expression "I am my own ancestor" is usually credited to Andoche Junot, for a time a marshal of France. Junot had risen from the ranks and became the Duke of Abrantes and an important figure at Napoleon's newly formed
court. One day a nobleman of the old regime asked him what was his ancestry. "Ah, sir," replied the spirited soldier, "I know nothing about it. I am my own ancestor." Probably he had never heard of the similar remark made by Tiberius about Curtius Rufus. "He seems to me to be descended from himself."

Napoleon's reply to the emperor of Austria was in a kindred vein. The Austrian when Napoleon became his prospective son-in-law would faint have traced the Bonaparte lineage to some petty prince of Treviso. "I am my own ancestor," said Napoleon. Under similar circumstances Napoleon alluded to a genealogist. "Friend, my patent of nobility dates
from Montecotte," his first great victory.

When Iphicrates, the Athenian general, had it cast up in his face by a descendant of Harmodius that he was a shoemaker's son he calmly replied:
"The nobility of my family begins with me; yours ends with you."

Almost the same words were used by Alexander Dumas when asked if he were not descended from an ape (covert sneer at his negro grandmother). "Very likely my ancestry begins
where yours ends."

Voltaire in his "Merope" says: "The first to become king was a successful soldier. He who serves well his country has no need of ancestry."

Conquered the Orchestra.

In his early days Herr Arthur Nikisch, the famous conductor, was appointed to conduct a performance of "Tannhauser" at the Leipzig opera.
He was but a young chorus master at the time, and the orchestra absolutely refused to play under so youthful a conductor. They were only induced to do so when a director said that if they were of the same mind after the overture had been played they could then and there hand in their resignations.

The overture was a veritable triumph
for Nikisch, and with profuse apologies the orchestra offered him their congratulations.—London Tit-Bits.

Dodging the Bore.

The tardy clubman paused at the door of the smoking room.
"Bingley," he asked, in a whisper,
"has Slodger given out the daily statement of his health and told all about his symptoms yet?"
"Yes," said the man inside the door,
"He's just finished."
"All right, I'll come in."—Chicago
Tribune.

Conclusive.

Briggs—It's too bad about Winkle and the girl he is engaged to. Neither of them is good enough for the other.
Griggs—What makes you think that?
"Well, I've been talking the matter
over with both families."—Life.

It is useless to attempt to reason a man out of a thing he was never reasoned into.—Swift.

Aaron Burr's Grave.

Aaron Burr died at Port Richmond, Bergen Island, Sept. 14, 1836. His remains were conveyed to Princeton, N.
J., where, according to his request, he was interred at the feet of his father and grandfather. Both his father and grandfather were presidents of Princeton college.

Concerning the tombstone which marks his burial place, we quote from the history of his life by Parton:
"Some efforts were made and some money subscribed soon after his death to procure a suitable monument, but the project failed. For nearly two years the spot where he lay was unmarked when one morning it was discovered that a small, very substantial and not inexpensive monument of granite and marble had been placed during the night over his remains. No one in the town saw the monument erected or knew anything whatever concerning it. There was no stone-cutter in the vicinity capable of executing the work. The stone bears the inscription: 'Aaron Burr, Born February 6, 1756, Died, September 14,
1836.'—Philadelphia Press.

The Presidential Salute.

One explanation of the reason for adopting twenty-one guns as the presidential salute is that there might be maintained a uniformity in national salutes. Great Britain having in the distant past adopted twenty-one as the number for the royal salute. Of the many surmises as to why the number twenty-one was settled upon we mention two—first, that twenty-one was the number of years fixed by English law as the age of majority; second,
that seven was the original salute
and three times seven would signify one seven for each of the divisions,
England and Wales, Scotland and Ireland. It is asserted that the United States adopted this salute to signify to the mother country that her child had reached his majority and was prepared in law to inherit the land and to this end fired the "gun of 1776," the figures of which year, 1+7+7+6, equal 21.—Philadelphia Press.

Underground Hotels.

An extraordinary hotel is that in the sewers of Paris, immediately below the Church of St. Madeleine. It was built and is conducted solely for the benefit of the sewer workers.
Nearly a hundred meals are provided every day, and for the sum of $2.40 a man can be comfortably housed and fed for a week in this gigantic drain pipe.

Very similar is the hotel which catters for visitors to the coal mine of St. Pierre at Mons. It is to be found at the bottom of the mine, 600 feet below the earth, and is carved out of solid coal. The electric light on the glittering black walls, which have been left unpapered, is extremely effective. Large reception and bed rooms splendidly fitted up are provided, and the hotel even boasts the luxury of a swimming bath.

A WITTY PASHA.

He Told the Missionary a Story to Fit
the Occasion.

Official bribery is common in the east, and it is a tender subject there,
as a humorous story told by the late
Rev. H. H. Jessup, D. D., in his book,
"Fifty-three Years in Syria," bears
witness.

One day in 1873 Dr. Van Dyck, manager of the press in connection with the work of propaganda of the Syrian Protestant college at Beirut, was sent for by Kamil Pasha, the governor, to come to the serai, as he was about to sign up the press for a violation of the press laws. Dr. Van Dyck proceeded to the serai and asked the pasha what he meant.

The pasha, holding up a little tract,
said, "Was this printed at your press?"

"Yes."

"Then it must be confiscated, as it contains an attack on the Turkish government."

"Wherein," asked Dr. Van Dyck,

"does it attack the government?"

The pasha pointed out several passages which criticized the bribery and corruption everywhere prevalent, perjury and lying among witnesses and public officials and the fact that "truth
had fallen in the streets and equity
could not enter."

"Are not these statements true?"

said Dr. Van Dyck. "Your excellency ought to put a copy into the hands of every government official in your pashalic. Is it not so?"

"Have you never heard the story of the Cadil el Ab War?" asked the pasha.

"And what is that?" queried the doctor.

"Well," began the pasha, "once there was a famous one-eyed cadil (judge).
One day a man came to court and addressed him as follows:

"Good morning, O one-eyed cadil!
May your day be blessed, O one-eyed cadil! I have heard of the noble character and justice of the one-eyed cadil, and I would ask the distinguished and revered one-eyed cadil to do me justice, and—"

"Stop!" interrupted the cadil. "Supposing I am one-eyed, do I want to be everlastingly reminded of it? Get out of my sight!"

"And so," concluded the pasha, "we know that these reflections on our country and our courts are true, but we don't want to be publicly reminded of it!"

Billiards.

"Have you heard the billiard coun-drum?" Well, here it is:

"What made the red ball bluish?"

"Why, when it saw the two whites kiss in the corner."

A Comparison.

In a school at Washington a boy was asked to compare the word "sick."

The little fellow arose in his place, looked around him for a moment, his face a picture of deep thought, and then he said:

"Sick, worse, dead."—Los Angeles

Boost Sonoma Valley's Natural Mineral Springs.

SONOMA VALLEY should take particular interest in the effort being made to have California boosted for its mineral waters and natural health springs by the State Promotion Committee. We are entitled to big advertising on this score for California in general and Sonoma Valley in particular boasts the most health-giving waters in the world, and the mecca to the Old World will be a thing of the past when we have proven the virtues of our springs through the right kind of advertising. Our climate, our fruit and our flowers bring thousands yearly, but when those who seek health find that our mineral waters are the panacea for the ills that beset them we will see a wondrous human tide turned hither. Sonoma Valley is without a peer when it comes to natural mineral water.

The Hay Market Situation Weak

Somers & Co. of San Francisco, in their weekly report on the condition of the hay market, report the situation as being very weak, with prices ranging from $12 to $10.50 for choice wheat hay and from $9 to $6.50 for other grades. The report says:

"Receipts of hay for the week ending today amount to 5175 tons, somewhat of an increase over the week previous, and a sufficient amount to keep the dealers extremely busy in order to handle same and to prevent any advance in price over the existing low quotations. When we consider that thus far this month we have received 16,360 tons of hay, and during the month of August 28,716 tons, it can readily be seen the difficulty under which the market has labored for the past six weeks. The average receipts of hay for the past year amounted to 476 tons per day, and during the past six weeks the average daily receipts have amounted to 883 tons, or over 1000 tons for each working day. These figures are especially interesting to those familiar with the situation in the country at present. Many customers in town have filled their lots to their utmost capacity, being attracted by the low prices, and, at the same time, nearly every country hay warehouse is filled to its utmost capacity, and still the fields are not cleaned up. It certainly seems then that we cannot expect higher prices unless some unexpected demand develops. The export and coastwise shipping trade is fairly good, especially for alfalfa, and we are pleased to be advised that the government contract for ten thousand tons for shipment to the Philippines has been awarded to a San Francisco firm. The shipment of this quantity of hay from California will have an almost imperceptible effect on the market we believe, for stocks are so great through the country."

Patriotism

The stomach is a larger factor in "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" than most people are aware. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia. The confirmed dyspeptic "is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils." The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier and a fault finder.

A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness. Diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are promptly and permanently cured by the use of

DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY. It builds up the body with sound flesh and solid muscle.

The dealer who offers a substitute for the "Discovery" is only seeking to make the little more profit realized on the sale of less meritorious preparations.

Adjourned Meeting of the City Trustees

The Board of City Trustees met in adjourned session last Wednesday evening to take further action in regard to the sewer question and other matters of minor importance. The bonds have now been sold, printed and signed and the $20,000, together with the premium of $46, which the Los Angeles purchasers paid to secure them as an investment, will be in the hands of City Treasurer Jesse Burris in a few days.

During the course of the meeting L. L. Lewis, President of the Yulupa Land and Water Company which has recently introduced high-pressure water into town, appeared before the Board in regard to again testing his system for fire fighting purposes. He desired that the firemen be called upon to make a competitive test between his water system and that of the Sonoma City Water Works Company. What Mr. Lewis wanted was for the firemen to couple their hose on to a hydrant that he caused to be set up on Napa street and test the force of his system and then to attach the hose to a Sonoma City Water Works Company's hydrant in the near vicinity in order to show the superiority of the one over the other in the matter of pressure.

The Trustees were averse to doing this and as public servants becoming boomer for any particular private water system in the town, and a tilt between Mr. Lewis and the Trustees followed, with the result that the offending hydrant which had been set up by Mr. Lewis on the public street without permission of the street committee has been removed as a dangerous obstruction.

At latest accounts Mr. Lewis was threatening to cut off Sonoma from the benefits of his high pressure water system because he seems to think that the patrons of the City Water Works Company ought to patronize his system in preference to their old stand-by, and because the City Trustees did not happen to agree with him we are sorry to say Mr. Lewis became very angry and hinted at graft. The Trustees adjourned to meet again next Wednesday evening.

ADS. PEROXIDE CREAM

For those particular people who desire a beautiful complexion and who want to keep the skin at its best all the time — keep it clear, flexible, smooth and give it the glow of health — there is nothing as good as A. D. S. Peroxide Cream, because it contains a small quantity of Hydrogen Peroxide, the great antiseptic healing and cleansing agent. Its action upon a red, blotched, pimply, scaly, unsightly skin is very pronounced.

When used as a massage it has a tendency to eradicate wrinkles and to nourish the tissues. It is a mild bleach — perfectly harmless and will not grow hair.

This is one of the leading preparations made by the American Druggists' Association, which is composed of 12,000 responsible druggists, and it is but one of the famous A. D. S. Peroxide Family.

The others — equally as good, equally as beneficial and just as popular — are A. D. S. Peroxide Tooth Powder, which whitens, cleanses and preserves the teeth; A. D. S. Peroxide Tooth Paste for the same purpose, put up in a different form; A. D. S. Peroxide Soap, a very superior soap because it cleanses as well as cleanses; A. D. S. Peroxide Foot Powder, for tired, aching, burning feet, and last, but by no means of least importance, is A. D. S. Peroxide of Hydrogen, the great disinfectant and germicide now being used in so many homes. All of these A. D. S. preparations can be obtained at any A. D. S. drug store.

J. W. MORRISSEY

VERY MUCH ALIVE

"Not Food for the Fishes" After

All - Would-Be Suicide Simply Fled from Imaginary

Financial Worries.

The report that J. W. Morrissey, the Broadway merchant, who disappeared from his home here three weeks ago in a sensational manner, is in the land of the living has been verified.

It will be recalled that Morrissey disappeared from his home under cover of darkness hatless and coatless. He left several letters behind stating that he was about to commit suicide. One of these letters was mailed to the Golden Eagle Milling Co. of Petaluma, one of Morrissey's creditors. In this epistle he wrote that "before receiving this my body will be food for the fishes."

The tenor of this letter and others that "the deceased" wrote previous to his intended shuffling off sounded rather fishy to the Index-Tribune, and while many men engaged in a search for the remains of the supposed dead man a representative of this newspaper got busy on the theory that Morrissey had fled from imaginary financial troubles. This theory has now proved to be correct.

Morrissey has been repeatedly seen in the vicinity of the Examiner office in San Francisco, where he secured a job shortly after his disappearance. That Morrissey was very much alive no better evidence was wanting than the fact that one of the local county banks received a check with the signature of Morrissey attached which had been written on the check many days after his disappearance.

Several attachments have been placed on Morrissey's property by his creditors, among them being that of the Golden Eagle Milling Co. for $2,300, and the Broadway store has been closed and placed in charge of a keeper. It is said, however, that the property left behind by Morrissey when he took his foolish flight will satisfy the claims of his creditors in full and leave a balance of at least $700 for his wife and children, who have been mourning husband and father as dead for several weeks.

Spine

Owen R. Frisbie, for a number of years a resident of this place but who has been farming at Rio Vista for several years, died at the Lane Hospital, San Francisco last Wednesday morning from injuries received last week while working on his farm.

The unfortunate man was working on a thrashing machine and in some manner was knocked off the machine and striking the ground with great force received injuries which proved fatal ten days afterward. His spine was fractured and after being taken to the hospital his case was pronounced hopeless.

Owen Frisbie was related to the Frisbies of Vallejo and was aged about forty years.

Miss Amy Rowe, a milliner of six years experience, has arranged to take orders at Hotz's dry goods store on Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays from 3 to 5 p. m. of each week. At other times Miss Rowe will meet her customers at the Davis residence on Broadway.

Mammoth Sunflower.

T. J. McGimsey, U. S. bonded warehouse keeper of this place, has forwarded to the State Board of Trade rooms, San Francisco, a mammoth sunflower. It was grown on his private residence grounds in this place and measures 184 inches across its face and is 58 inches in circumference. One of our Santa Rosa contemporaries was boasting a few days ago about the size of a sunflower grown in that city which measured but 15 inches across. This attracted Mr. McGimsey's attention and he then got busy in his sunflower patch with the result that he demonstrated that Santa Rosa isn't in it with Sonoma when it comes to sunflowers. We grow 'em down this way as big round as cartwheels.

SUDDEN DEATH OF PIETRO BALLETTA

Deceased Had Been Complaining

but a Short Time and His Passing was a Shock to

His Relatives.

Pietro Balletta, the aged father of Mrs. L. Quartaroli of the El Dorado Hotel, died very unexpectedly in this place last Monday morning. He had complained of a slight pain in the region of the stomach for a couple of days before he passed away, but did not take to his bed. Mr. Balletta, who was making his home with his daughter here, was seen upon our streets in apparently fair health up to the very evening preceding his death, and his passing was a great shock to his relatives and friends.

The deceased, who was a native of Italy, was aged 72 years. Previous to coming here Mr. Balletta had resided for years in Napa, where he raised a family and where he is best known. His remains were shipped to that city Tuesday afternoon for interment in the family burial plot.

The funeral was held Wednesday under the auspices of William Tell Grove, U. A. O. D., Napa, of which deceased was a member in good standing, and was largely attended by relatives and friends.

Associate Justice Albert Glenn Burnett.

Associate Justice Albert Glenn Burnett of the Third District Court of Appeal, is the unanimous choice of the Republicans of his district, as expressed at the polls in the recent primaries, for re-election to the office which he has held with credit and honor the past four years. Judge Burnett is one of Sonoma's favorite sons, and four years ago was accorded one of the biggest majorities in this county ever given a candidate for a State or county office. This handsome tribute at the hands of the voters of his home county goes to show his standing and popularity among those who know him best.

Previous to ascending the bench of the Appellate Court of the Third District Judge Burnett served as District Attorney of this county for two terms and was then elevated to the Superior Court bench of Sonoma county, which position he resigned after a long term of in office to accept a judgeship of the Third District Court of Appeal.

Judge Burnett stands high with all classes in this judicial district and he is one of the sure winners in the November election.

Collins' Moving Picture Show This Evening.

One of the new attractions of Collins' Moving Picture Show in Union Hall, commencing this evening, will be the first appearance in Sonoma of Miss Marie Edgar, the noted singer, late of the Novelty Theatre, Vallejo. ## The Great Sale at Schocken's Store.

As will be seen by the triple-column ad on the first page of today's paper the great auction sale at Schocken's store will be continued a few days longer. This has been the most successful sale ever held in this city. The articles yet to be auctioned off consists of at least half of the very best goods that were on the shelves of the big store when the sale was inaugurated two weeks ago. Therefore those who attend the winding up of this great sale within the next few days will be in line to secure better bargains than ever.

THE BANQUET MONDAY NIGHT.

Fifty Native Sons and Driving

Club Members Entertained

by M. E. Cummings.

Mayor M. E. Cummings, the owner of Mike C., the winner of one of the principal trophies at the Park Stadium, San Francisco, on the 10th inst., gave a banquet in Woodman's Hall last Monday evening to the members of the Sonoma Driving Club and the Native Sons of our local parlor in honor of the horse and his driver, Joe F. Ryan, the secretary of the club.

Fifty guests sat around the banquet board, over which Mr. Cummings presided as host and P. G. Keil as toastmaster. The spread was most bounteous and appetizing to which the guests did ample justice. After the cigars had been passed around and lighted toastmaster Keil called upon each guest in his turn to be heard from. Speech-making, vocal and instrumental music and the spinning of yarns were then the order of the evening until midnight, when the congenial spirits who composed the happy gathering wended their way homeward more, than ever convinced that to just such little reunions is due more than to any other one thing peace, harmony and good fellowship in any community.

The cup won by Mike C. is of solid silver and a beautiful specimen of the jeweler's art. Frank Koenig of the Union Hotel has it on exhibition. It is a handsomely engraved trophy and bears this inscription:

Donated by the Native Sons of the Golden West
Sept. 10, 1910
Park Stadium, San Francisco
Won by Mike C.
Time 2:15

The owner of Mike C., raised the animal from a colt, which comes from Lou Dillon stock. When quite a youngster the horse attracted the attention of Joe Ryan, Secretary of the Sonoma Driving Club, who has been the sole trainer and driver of the horse since the first day he was "hooked up."

Mike C., previous to competing for the Stadium cup, had been entered in a number of trotting events on our local race course, all of which he won easily. His last race here was on July 4th last when he competed with Myrtle in a 2:20 trotting event, mile heats best two in three. Myrtle took the first heat but Mike C. won the second and third heats easily in 2:15, where his previous record had never exceeded 2:24.

Joe Ryan has always held the ribbons over the promising youngster in all his victories on the turf.

Of course Mr. Cummings, the owner, and Mr. Ryan, the trainer and driver of the horse, as well as the members of the driving club, are justly proud of Mike C., who was raised in the rear yard of Lewis & Cummings meat market right in the heart of the town.

The trophy and Mike C. in action at the Stadium will be exhibited on canvas at Collins' moving picture show this evening at the request of the driving club.

P. B. BERGES' WILL

FILED FOR PROBATE

Leaves a Forty-Thousand-Dollar Estate to His Widow, Children and Grandchildren.

The will of P. B. Berges, the owner of the Victoria vineyards and winery located in the western suburbs of town, who passed away at his home in San Francisco last week, was filed for probate in the Superior Court of that city Saturday. The will, which was made on the 27th of last month, nominated P. J. Muller and Albert P. Berges executors of the estate, consisting of Sonoma and San Francisco property, valued at over $40,000. The deceased divided his property among the following relatives: Jeanne Berges, his widow; Eugene B. Muller, a daughter; Juliette H. Berges, a daughter; Henry J. Berges, a son; and John and Alice Berges, grandchildren. The attorney for the estate is A. Comte Jr., of San Francisco.

The Democratic Nominee for State Senator.

The political card of L. W. Juilliard, Democratic nominee for State Senator to represent the Eighth District, embracing Sonoma county, in the California Legislature, appears in these columns. Mr. Juilliard is a well-known attorney of Santa Rosa and represented the people of the Fourteenth Assembly District in the lower house of the Legislature last winter and in the recent special session. He stands high in his profession and has a clean public record behind him. Personally Mr. Juilliard has a host of friends in Sonoma county among all classes of citizens, and we must admit he is the about the strongest man in the district the Democrats could have selected to make the race against Senator Price, his Republican opponent. However, as a United States Senator is to be chosen at the next session of the Legislature, party lines ought to be and undoubtedly will be strictly drawn in the legislative contests this election, particularly where the Republican as well as the Democratic nominees are all clean men as they are in Sonoma county. But for all that, Mr. Juilliard is to be reckoned with as a foeman worthy of Senator Price's steel.

THE SONOMA CLUB

WOMEN ENTERTAIN

The Ninth Annual Reception of the Ladies Who Do Things a Brilliant Affair.

The Sonoma Valley Woman's Club gave its ninth annual reception in the handsome and spacious parlors of the club on Friday evening of last week. It was a full dress function and a most brilliant affair.

Many of the ladies were elegantly gowned and Mrs. P. N. Stofen, the President, and the officers and members of the club entertained with that true graciousness for which our club women are noted far and wide.

The fore part of the evening was devoted to an entertaining literary and musical program which had been arranged for the occasion. Miss Emilie Poppe was first on the program with an instrumental solo; Misses Marie Clewe and Ida Waterman favored the guests with vocal solos, Mrs. Bateman presiding at the piano; Superintendent of Schools De Witt Montgomery delivered an interesting and instructive address, his theme being agriculture and our high schools.

At the conclusion of Prof. Montgomery's address dainty refreshments were served, followed by social converse and dancing.

The festivities were kept up until midnight, and the ninth anniversary of the club that does things was a thing to be talked about and praised in the future.

Leaves Twenty Thousand Dollar Estate to Brother

The will of the late George Cabot Watriss, who passed away at Agua Caliente last week, was filed for probate in the Superior Court of this county Tuesday. The deceased leaves his entire estate, valued at $20,000, to his brother, Franklin Watriss. The estate consists of $10,000 cash in bank and real and personal property valued at a similar amount. The attorney for the estate is Robt. A. Poppe.

ONLY ONE OF HIS KIND.

The Reason the Judge Refused to Hang on to the Horse.

During the second Cleveland campaign Colonel John P. Irish, the golden roared orator, and Judge Kinne of Waterloo, Ia., the man with lungs of brass, were stumping Iowa in behalf of the Democratic candidate.

They were driving in a buggy on the road to Sidney, a young city in the southwestern part of the state, when they came to a fork of the road where there was no sign board. Which turn to take was a question, as they had barely time to make the town anyway.

"There's a farmhouse over there a bit. You sit still, and I'll go over and ask questions," said Irish, and, climbing out, he started for the desired information. He got it and on his return saw to the horse, evidently frightened at something, tearing down the road at runaway speed. Instead of trying to stop the horse, Judge Kinne dropped the reins, climbed over the seat and dropped off the back of the buggy into the road.

When Irish caught up to him the judge was busily dusting himself off after his roll in the roadway, not in the least disfigured by his acrobatic stunt.

"You're on the right fork of the road, all right, judge, but why didn't you hang on to the horse?" asked Irish, laughing heartily.

"Why didn't I hang on to him?" rumbled Kinne in his deep subcellar voice. "I'll tell you why I didn't, my Christian friend. There's lots of horses in this world, but there is but one Judge Kinne."—Los Angeles Times.

TEMPTING TABBY.

Russ That Won a Satisfactory Pose For the Camera.

The repairs on the house were completed and the shavings swept out; also a new coat of paint added dressiness to the outside. What next but a photograph of its new angles? That being considered, the question of moment was how to pose Katusha.

Rolling into a ball every cat looks like every other cat; hence it was Katusha in action that must grace the foreground. Being abominably coddled and fat, action was the last thing that appealed to Katusha. Coaxing and likewise prodding made no effect.

She had been known upon occasions to be stirred by a morsel of delectable food. But fancy an aristocratic feline pictured in the attitude of tearing at a chicken bone! Impossible for Katusha.

There arose an emergency and with it the mistress, who disappeared into the house and brought forth a branch of Japanese paper cherry blossoms. A wave of them before Katusha's eyes was like making some hypnotic pass. She got up, stretched her body, while her nose just reached the pinkish flowers. That was it! They appealed to her aestheticism.

Snap went the camera. It was perfect. "How"—began the man of the house.

"Just the alluring fragrance of a silver of chicken secreted in the bough," said herself as Katusha rolled back into a ball.—Kansas City Star.

Tame Eagles.

A man living near Trompsco, in Norway, is a great lover of wild birds and has succeeded in taming three eagles. He took them on the mountain side while they were young and, according to the London Field, kept them a couple of years in captivity. As their craving for liberty, however, grew stronger and stronger he at last let them loose, but they have settled down in the neighborhood of his home, and when he ascends the height which has become their favorite resort with fish or a newly shot seagull they quickly discover him from afar and come majestically sailing through the air, settling down beside him. Their meal over, they willingly allow him to pet and stroke them before they again make for the rocky islets, but they will not allow a stranger to approach them.

Etiquette.

The very high sounding word etiquette had a very humble origin, for etiquette meant simply a label. It derived its present meaning from the fact that a Scotch gardener who had laid out the grounds at Versailles for Louis XIV. was much annoyed at the courtiers walking over his newly made paths and at length had labels placed to indicate where they might walk. At first these labels were ignored, but a hint from high quarters that in future the walks of the courtiers must be within the "etiquettes" or labels was promptly attended to. To keep within the "etiquettes" came to mean to do the correct thing.

As It Used to Be.

Mildmay is a philosopher in his way. The other evening Mrs. M. gave him a scolding that would have made almost any other man crazy. But Mildmay said never a word in reply. He only murmured to himself.

"And that is the woman I used to hold on my knee and call my little tootsy woosy!"

Generous.
